

(10) Rank - Author for or against (1)

White Man's Burden Collection Chart

Unit: Imperialism: Complete the chart by analyzing the six different documents at each station. The first will be modeled and practiced in class.

Name: _____

Doc. #	Title	Author	'I Wonder'	Questions	Conclusions (Meaning, Purpose, Effect)
1	Sleeping Sickness	Ross Gordon created 1911	Observation Giant Black man Africa labelled Flags White Whit men	Why is he a giant? Why are the white men minie?	Splitting Africa to different nations. "Giant" represents African natives.
2	The White Man's Burden	Rudyard Kipling	Peadly sins & god are mentioned for good?	Why is this poem repeatedly mentioning the white man's burden?	The author promotes the helping of others over greed.
3	Real White Man's Burden	Ernest Crosby	Everpresent sarcasm	Why use sarcasm	Using sarcasm to poke fun at imperialism

Doc. #	Title	Author	"I Wonder"	Questions	Conclusions (Meaning, Purpose, Effect)
4	Willing to Compromise	Frank (Arthur) Nambivell	The natives are drawn stupid. One is wearing shoes. Stereotypical setting and village	- Why are they so stereotypical? - Why does one have shoes? - Why is the reader have more tech.?	The natives are easily bought and stupid.
5	The Filipinos First Bath	Grand Hamilton	The baby's displeasure. The scrub and towel. The water is referred as civilization	- Why is the baby screaming? - Why is it only American patriots? - Why is a president washing nat.	This picture depicts America's "burden" or duty to civilize the world.
6	The First Step	No author	- Very formal/exp. Shows a port - Refers to imperialism as "lightening"	- Why is the man looking out a window? - Why is he on a ship	The authors is referring to the imperialism of others as cleansing and uses the soap to reflect this.

Final: Do most of the authors believe it's the white man's burden to imperialize?

Rank → The author is for or against intervention/imperialism?

White Man's Burden Collection Chart

Unit: Imperialism: Complete the chart by analyzing the six different documents at each station. The first will be modeled and practiced in class.

Name: _____

Doc. #	Title	Author	'I Wonder' (Observations)	Questions	Conclusions (Meaning, Purpose, Effect)
1	Sleeping Sickness	Gordon Ross (1873-1946) Published 1911 Oct. 28	Shakes on the grant African	Why is he a grant. What are they doing for the Africa title	Africa is dormant and unable to defend itself from the sickness (after continents).
2	Real White Man's Burden	Ernest H. Crosby	They place the grant Africans w/ the other strange materials as if they were objects & not people. Why is it a burden for the white man to give someone else things to be made?	taxes, electric chairs, rent, are all in colour of their, why's if goods?	It seems our intuition appears good in the white man's eyes but is truly a burden in the view of the Africans.
3	The White Man's Burden	Rudyard Kipling 1899	Talks were about the slave work they do. All the best things slaves had to do w/ no gain for themselves

Final Question: Do most of the authors believe it's the white man's burden to imperialize other nations?

Doc. #	Title	Author	'I Wonder'	Questions	Conclusions (Meaning, Purpose, Effect)
4	Willing to compromise / Frank A. Mendenhall	Frank A. Mendenhall	Cigar or blunt in large round	Why would he expect trouble from the missionaries?	Americans trying to justify them by saying it was given and there were no trouble.
5	Civilization The Filipinos First BATH	Eugene Hamilton Published: June 10 th 1899	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • paper & pen background (in USA) • President McKinley • Civilization writer • writer. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Why are the other Filipinos happy to put on the presidents clothes? What's on the brush. What's the relation between America & Philippines. 	America's trying to demean the Filipinos, in civilization and the Filipino isn't too happy
6	The first step toward lightening the white man's burden in through teaching the virtues of cleanliness.	Pearl's Soap advertisement company Published: 1899	Trake ships in background & trade ports, missionaries? Colonel washing wounds w/ soap.	Are they saying Africans or any other colored race is dirty?	The white man is exhorting the virtues w/ cleanliness.

7

4

2